

Jack Borrows Anna's Ruler

I borrowed Anna's ruler because I thought she was finished. I didn't ask her because she wasn't there. Anna had actually gone to the toilet and was still using her ruler. She didn't expect me to borrow it, and she thought I had taken it in an unkind way. This is why she called me a thief. Next time I can tell Anna that I borrowed it because I thought she was done. I can offer to give it back and get a ruler from my teacher. Next time Anna will ask nicely if she can please have her ruler back.
